Thank you to Kishan Shah for responsibly reporting vulnerabilities

Dear Kishan Shah,

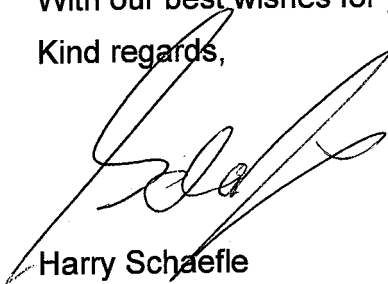

The University of Augsburg would like to thank you for responsibly reporting reflected cross site scripting along with instructions for reproducing and fixing the problem.

We appreciate your valuable work, which helped us to reduce information security issues impacting our systems. We immediately fixed the vulnerabilities.

If you find any vulnerabilities in the future best reporting address is abuse@uni-augsburg.de

With our best wishes for your future.

Kind regards,

Harry Schae fle
Chief Information Security Officer
